

Endorsement letter

Dr. Gyula Vastag,

as the Head of the Doctoral School of Economics, Business and Informatics

of the Corvinus University of Budapest encourage you -

Maher Fathi Alhasan (Jordanian) - to apply for the Stipendium Hungaricum Scholarship of the Tempus Public Foundation for the 8-semester-long Doctoral Programme, which starts in September 2021 with the research topic:

Analysis on cloud computing and business intelligence systems and its effects on project management practices in the construction sector

I have familiarised myself with the candidate's professional and scientific career, as well as I have learnt the motivation, intention to study further and the reason of the research topic.

I have informed the candidate that:

- this recommendation will be eligible to submit the application only and it will not have any influence on the evaluation process and it will not be eligible for further litigation.
- enrolment is solely possible after the nomination of the country of nationality and the successful completion of the admission process of the Doctoral School.
- the official assignment of the supervisor is made by the Board of the Doctoral School in case the student got admitted and enrolled for the first semester.

Budapest, January 5, 2021.
